

HOUSING OMBUDSMAN COMPLAINTS SELF-ASSESSMENT

Section 1: Definition of a complaint

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
1.2	A complaint must be defined as: 'an expression of dissatisfaction, however made, about the standard of service, actions or lack of action by the landlord, its own staff, or those acting on its behalf, affecting a resident or group of residents.'	Yes	Complaints Policy	Complaint definition in section 2.1 of the policy (Complaints Policy)
1.3	A resident does not have to use the word 'complaint' for it to be treated as such. Whenever a resident expresses dissatisfaction landlords must give them the choice to make complaint. A complaint that is submitted via a third party or representative must be handled in line with the landlord's complaints policy.	Yes	Complaints Policy Complaints Register	All expressions of dissatisfaction are logged and are escalated through the complaints process as necessary, in line with agreed policy and procedures. Section 2 of the complaints policy identifies how complaints can be made and the process for handling complaints.
1.4	Landlords must recognise the difference between a service request and a complaint. This must be set out in their complaints policy. A service request is a request from a resident to the landlord requiring action to be taken to put something right. Service requests are not complaints, but must be recorded, monitored and reviewed regularly.	Yes	Complaints Policy	Section 2.4 of the complaints policy defines the difference between complaints and service request. Service requests such as repairs requests, requests for application forms etc are logged on the internal housing management system and the resident file.
1.5	A complaint must be raised when the resident expresses dissatisfaction with the response to their service request, even if the handling of the service request remains ongoing. Landlords must not stop their efforts to address the service request if the resident complains.	Yes	Complaint Policy Complaints register	Section 2.2 and 3.5 of the complaints policy reconfirm English Rural's commitment to resolving any dissatisfaction or complaints with services as quickly as possible. The complaints register logs all actions taken to resolve complaints.

1.6	An expression of dissatisfaction with services made through a survey is not defined as a complaint, though wherever possible, the person completing the survey should be made aware of how they can pursue a complaint if they wish to. Where landlords ask for wider feedback about their services, they also must provide details of how residents can complain.	Yes	Repairs Completion Surveys Resident Satisfaction Surveys, and other resident surveys	All surveys already include, or in the case of the annual satisfaction survey will include the following: If you are in anyway dissatisfied with the service provided by English Rural you can access the complaints policy and procedure and submit a complaint on our website or by calling the Customer Services Team

Section 2: Exclusions

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
2.1	Landlords must accept a complaint unless there is a valid reason not to do so. If landlords decide not to accept a complaint they must be able to evidence their reasoning. Each complaint must be considered on its own merits	Yes	Complaints Policy Complaints Register	Section 2.8 and 2.9 of the complaints policy details the expected timeframe for reporting complaints and exclusions.
2.2	A complaints policy must set out the circumstances in which a matter will not be considered as a complaint or escalated, and these circumstances must be fair and reasonable to residents. Acceptable exclusions include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The issue giving rise to the complaint occurred over twelve months ago. Legal proceedings have started. This is defined as details of the claim, such as the Claim Form and Particulars of Claim, having been filed at court. Matters that have previously been considered under the complaints policy. 	Yes	Complaints Policy	As above

2.3	Landlords must accept complaints referred to them within 12 months of the issue occurring or the resident becoming aware of the issue, unless they are excluded on other grounds. Landlords must consider whether to apply discretion to accept complaints made outside this time limit where there are good reasons to do so.	Yes	Complaints Policy	As above
2.4	If a landlord decides not to accept a complaint, an explanation must be provided to the resident setting out the reasons why the matter is not suitable for the complaints process and the right to take that decision to the Ombudsman. If the Ombudsman does not agree that the exclusion has been fairly applied, the Ombudsman may tell the landlord to take on the complaint.	Yes	Complaints Policy	As above
2.5	Landlords must not take a blanket approach to excluding complaints; they must consider the individual circumstances of each complaint.	Yes	Complaints Policy	As above

Section 3: Accessibility and Awareness

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
3.1	Landlords must make it easy for residents to complain by providing different channels through which they can make a complaint. Landlords must consider their duties under the Equality Act 2010 and anticipate the needs and reasonable adjustments of residents who may need to access the complaints process.	Yes	Complaints Policy Website Resident Portal	Complaints Policy is published on the website and gives clear guidance on how to make a complaint with a dedicated complaints area (Make A Complaint) Residents can access complaint information via the resident portal. The policy is also available in printed format by post on request. The services team are trained to

				direct residents to the complaints policy where necessary and support those residents who require additional assistance in making a complaint. Reasonable adjustments and accessibility guidance details in section 4 of the complaints policy. Section 2.5 of the complaints policy gives further guidance on assistance in making a complaint.
3.2	Residents must be able to raise their complaints in any way and with any member of staff. All staff must be aware of the complaints process and be able to pass details of the complaint to the appropriate person within the landlord.	Yes	Complaints Policy Website Resident Portal	Complaints are accepted in any format, detailed in section 2.5 of the complaints policy. All residents services staff are trained to accept complaints and are regularly briefed on the complaints policy and changes to procedure.
3.3	High volumes of complaints must not be seen as a negative, as they can be indicative of a well-publicised and accessible complaints process. Low complaint volumes are potentially a sign that residents are unable to complain.	Yes	Website Portal Newsletters	Complaints policy is published on the website (Complaints Policy) as well as the residents portals and promoted through residents newsletters. The services team are trained to direct residents to the complaints policy when service dissatisfaction is raised.
3.4	Landlords must make their complaint policy available in a clear and accessible format for all residents. This will detail the two stage process, what will happen at each stage, and the timeframes for responding. The policy must also be published on the landlord's website.	Yes	Complaints Policy – website, portal	Section 3.2 of the policy details a two stage process for complaints. The policy is published widely on the website with a dedicated website page with complaints information (Make A Complaint). Information on the policy and process of making a complaint is also detailed in the tenant handbook which is supplied to all residents and available online and the complaints procedure is promoted through resident newsletters.

3.5	The policy must explain how the landlord will publicise details of the complaints policy, including information about the Ombudsman and this Code.	Yes	Complaints Policy	Section 1.3 of complaints policy advises of compliance with the Complaint Handling Code and other relevant legislation. Section 3.12 of the complaints policy gives details on the Housing Ombudsman and how to raise a complaint with the Ombudsman
3.6	Landlords must give residents the opportunity to have a representative deal with their complaint on their behalf, and to be represented or accompanied at any meeting with the landlord.	Yes	Complaints Policy	Section 2.6 of the complaints policy references acceptance of complaints from representatives acting on behalf of residents. Section 3.6 advises residents of their right to be accompanied.
3.7	Landlords must provide residents with information on their right to access the Ombudsman service and how the individual can engage with the Ombudsman about their complaint.	Yes	Complaints Policy	Section 3.12 of the complaints policy gives details on the Housing Ombudsman and how to raise a complaint with the Ombudsman

Section 4: Complaint Handling Staff

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
4.1	Landlords must have a person or team assigned to take responsibility for complaint handling, including liaison with the Ombudsman and ensuring complaints are reported to the governing body (or equivalent). This Code will refer to that person or team as the 'complaints officer'. This role may be in addition to other duties.	Yes	Complaints Policy	Customer Services Manager appointed as the designated complaints officer, detailed at section 3.3 of the complaints policy. All relevant managers will be responsible for relevant complaint handling in consultation with the complaints officer.
4.2	The complaints officer must have access to staff at all levels to facilitate the prompt resolution of complaints. They must also have the authority	Yes	Complaints Policy	Complaints Officer role and responsibilities detailed in section 3.3 to 3.5 of the Complaints Policy. Complaints Officer (Customer Services Manager) sits on the

	and autonomy to act to resolve disputes promptly and fairly.			senior management team. English Rural promotes a culture of open access to all staff.
4.3	Landlords are expected to prioritise complaint handling and a culture of learning from complaints. All relevant staff must be suitably trained in the importance of complaint handling. It is important that complaints are seen as a core service and must be resourced to handle complaints effectively	Yes	Staff Training and culture	All relevant staff receive regular complaint handling training and are updated on any changes to the complaints policy and procedure. The Customer Services Team are supported by the Customer Services Manager to direct residents to the complaints policy when expressing any form of dissatisfaction.

Section 5: The Complaint Handling Process

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
5.1	Landlords must have a single policy in place for dealing with complaints covered by this Code. Residents must not be treated differently if they complain.	Yes	Complaints Policy	Policy published widely on website and residents portal and promoted through newsletters and other resident interactions.
5.2	The early and local resolution of issues between landlords and residents is key to effective complaint handling. It is not appropriate to have extra named stages (such as 'stage 0' or 'informal complaint') as this causes unnecessary confusion.	Yes	Complaints Policy	Section 3.2 of the complaints policy details the two stage process aligning with Complaint Handling Code guidance.
5.3	A process with more than two stages is not acceptable under any circumstances as this will make the complaint process unduly long and delay access to the Ombudsman.	Yes	Complaints Policy	As above

5.6	When a complaint is logged at Stage 1 or escalated to Stage 2, landlords must set out their understanding of the complaint and the outcomes the resident is seeking. The Code will refer to this as “the complaint definition”. If any aspect of the complaint is unclear, the resident must be asked for clarification.	Yes	Complaints Policy	Complaint response letters published as appendices to the policy and detail the required content of each complaint response.
5.7	When a complaint is acknowledged at either stage, landlords must be clear which aspects of the complaint they are, and are not, responsible for and clarify any areas where this is not clear.	Yes	Complaints Policy Complaints Register	Detailed in the complaint response letters (templates included as appendices to policy)
5.8	At each stage of the complaints process, complaint handlers must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. deal with complaints on their merits, act independently, and have an open mind; b. give the resident a fair chance to set out their position; c. take measures to address any actual or perceived conflict of interest; and d. consider all relevant information and evidence carefully. 	Yes	Complaints Policy Complaints Register	Detailed in the complaint response letters (templates included as appendices to policy)
5.9	Where a response to a complaint will fall outside the timescales set out in this Code, the landlord must agree with the resident suitable intervals for keeping them informed about their complaint.	Yes	Complaints Policy Complaints Register	Section 3.2 of the complaints policy details the approach to time extensions on complaint responses. These are agreed through ongoing communication with the resident and where necessary an action plan is agreed. Time extensions

				are also logged in the complaints register
5.10	Landlords must make reasonable adjustments for residents where appropriate under the Equality Act 2010. Landlords must keep a record of any reasonable adjustments agreed, as well as a record of any disabilities a resident has disclosed. Any agreed reasonable adjustments must be kept under active review.	Yes	Complaints Policy Complaints Register	Section 4 of the complaints policy gives guidance on accessibility and reasonable adjustments. Where any reasonable adjustments have been agreed, these will be recorded on the complaints register.
5.11	Landlords must not refuse to escalate a complaint through all stages of the complaints procedure unless it has valid reasons to do so. Landlords must clearly set out these reasons, and they must comply with the provisions set out in section 2 of this Code.	Yes	Complaints Policy	As per section 2.1 above. Section 2.8 and 2.9 of the complaints policy details the expected timeframe for reporting complaints and exclusions.
